Chapter 126 appropriates money from the general fund or allocates departmental funds to pay claims against the state:

- $52,552 is appropriated to the Department of Corrections for payments related to injuries and medical services associated with correctional sentence-to-service work or community service;
- $13,517 is allocated from the Department of Employment and Economic Development's existing funding to compensate for a departmental error that resulted in an economic loss to an individual; and
- $1,412 is appropriated to the commissioner of revenue for full payment of an individual's 2005 property tax refund.
