

House Research Act Summary

CHAPTER: 28

SESSION: 2013 Regular Session

TOPIC: Collaborative law process; exceptions for testimony of witnesses

Analyst: Mary Mullen

Date: April 25, 2013

This publication can be made available in alternative formats upon request. Please call 651-296-6753 (voice); or the Minnesota State Relay Service at 1-800-627-3529 (TTY) for assistance. Summaries are also available on our website at: www.house.mn/hrd/.

This act adds communication and documents made or used in a collaborative law process to the list of testimony that is excluded or privileged by Minnesota statute. It does not make previously discoverable information privileged by its use in the collaborative law process and it does not affect the privilege that is applicable to mediation and collaborative law projects in the common law. This also does not apply to the parties when there is an action to set aside a stipulated agreement resulting from a collaborative law process.