The governor vetoed a bill that would have required a two-thirds vote of the city council members present and voting to impose an interim ordinance (moratorium) relating to a housing proposal. The governor's veto message states that while he supports the notice requirement, he does not support the super majority vote requirement, and stated that he would reconsider the legislation if it was presented again but with a majority vote requirement.

Ch. 49 (H.F. 330/S.F. 201)

Note: This provision, but requiring a majority vote of all members of the city council, was enacted in chapter 94, article 11, section 3 – the omnibus jobs and economic development act.
