

Chapter 42

2026 Regular Session

Subject State observances

Bill H.F. 4541

Analyst Colbey Sullivan

Date March 30, 2026

Summary

This act repeals a statute that designated March 31 each year as Cesar Chavez Day. Both the house of representatives and the senate voted unanimously to repeal this statute, which was originally enacted in 2014.

By its own terms, this act took effect on March 28, 2026, the day after Governor Walz signed it into law.
