Overview

Last year the legislature enacted a sales tax exemption for biosolids processing equipment used in wastewater treatment facilities. The provision was effective beginning with sales after June 30, 1998. This bill extends that exemption to materials used in buildings that house the equipment.

- 1 Biosolid processing equipment. Extends the sales tax exemption for the purchase of biosolids processing equipment to the materials used in constructing buildings to house the equipment.
- 2 Effective date. Effective retroactively to sales after June 30, 1998.
