Overview

This bill makes a general fund appropriation for a collaborative housing project located in the city of St. Louis Park. The project, which serves at-risk youth, received a $50,000 appropriation for fiscal year 1998.

- 1 Appropriation. Appropriates $100,000 from the general fund to the commissioner of children, families and learning for a grant for the Meadowbrook Collaborative Housing Project. The grant must be used to enhance services and outreach for at-risk young people. Grant money may be used for staff and program development. The Collaborative must focus on truancy reduction, developing at-risk youth, adult mentoring and making programs available to reduce the time available for adverse activities.
