Allows farm wineries (wineries licensed by the state and allowed to sell their own wine on the premises without a further retail license) to also sell Minnesota-produced specialty food items on the premises.

Allows farm wineries to sell their own wine and other products presently allowed to be sold on farm winery premises (winery-produced wine, glassware, wine literature and accessories, and cheese), plus Minnesota-produced specialty food items, at up to three additional retail establishments specified in the farm winery license.

The bill would be effective on enactment.
