Overview

Establishes the first Monday in January as the date on which school boards annually meet to select board officers. Reflects the change from May school board elections to November school board elections.

Section

- 1 Officer selection. Directs a school board to meet and select officers on the first Monday of January of each year, or as soon thereafter as is practicable. Strikes language requiring such a meeting to occur within 10 days of when a school board is first elected and annually thereafter on July 1.
