Overview

Repeals the requirement for a school calendar that includes three days beyond the number of instruction days in a district's 1996-1997 school calendar.

Section

- 1 Repealer. Repeals the section of law making the length of a district's school calendar equal to the number of instructions days in the 1996-1997 school year plus three added days for student instruction or staff development related to implementing the profile of learning.

Makes the section effective immediately and applicable to the 2003-2004 school year and later.
