Overview

Repeals laws dealing with printing and duplication services provided by the Department of Administration.

Section

- 1 Revolving fund. Strikes reference to duplication and printing services in the law appropriating money to the commissioner of administration from the general services revolving fund.
- 2 Printing services. Provides that the following laws do not apply to state contracts for printing or duplicating services:
 - ▶ 16C.07: requirement to maintain a directory of professional or technical services provided by state agencies; requirement that agency post notice at state work sites and make reasonable efforts to determine if state employee is available before entering into contract for professional or technical services.
 - ▶ 16C.09, paragraph (a), clause (1) and paragraph (b): before entering into a service contract, the commissioner of administration must determine that no current state employee is able and available to perform the services called for by the contract.
 - ▶ 43A.047: requirement that agencies demonstrate they cannot use available staff before hiring outside consultants or services; requirement that in reducing budgets, agencies must give priority to reducing professional and technical service contracts before laying off permanent employees.

- 3 Records. Deletes a cross-reference to a section of statutes that is repealed by this bill.
- 4 Repealer. Repeals section 16B.50: requirement that the commissioner maintain a communications.media division that is responsible for all duplicating and printing services.
- 5 Effective date. Effective the day following final enactment.
