Overview

This bill proposes to allow administrative regions of the Minnesota State High School League to contract with the state auditor or private auditors to conduct statutorily required audits.

Section

1 Dues and events revenue. (a) Requires all money derived from league-sponsored events to be included in a financial and compliance audit of the high school league.

(b) Allows the league to contract with the state auditor or a private CPA to audit administrative regions of the high school league. Allows the state auditor to require additional information when the administrative regions contract with private auditors to meet applicable audit requirements. Allows the state auditor to accept the private CPA audit or make additional examinations.
