Section

- 1 Exception to continuing education requirement. Amends § 148B.54, by adding subd. 3. Permits an individual who was issued a license as a professional counselor on November 1, 2004, and whose license was terminated on February 20, 2009, to be eligible for license renewal without complying with the continuing education required during the first four years of licensure or the continuing education required for licensure following termination of the license. Requires the individual to complete at least 20 hours of continuing education within one year of the renewal date.
