Overview

This bill makes miscellaneous changes in state banking laws that apply to state-chartered banks.

- 1 Saturday; Monday following holiday. Clarifies state law regarding the day on which a bank can close in connection with a holiday, in addition to the holiday itself. For instance, it permits a bank to be closed on a Saturday that follows a Friday holiday or closed on a Monday that follows a Sunday holiday.
- 2 Total liabilities of any individual. Amends state law regarding bank lending limits, which limits the total amount for which any one individual can be indebted to a state-chartered bank. The change involves adding the bank's credit exposure to the individual arising out of a derivative transaction.
- 3 Repealer; obsolete laws relating to demand deposits. Repeals two laws that define "demand deposit" and limit payment of interest on them.
