Authorizes a court to bar a juvenile adjudicated delinquent for a violation of criminal sexual conduct from residing within 1,000 feet or three city blocks, whichever is greater, of a victim of the offense, if the victim does not live in the same home as the offender and the offender is at least 15 years of age. The residency restriction can be for all or a portion of the period that the offender is under the jurisdiction of the court. Excuses the court from having to make written findings as to why the residency restriction is in the best interest of the juvenile offender.
