This bill imposes a court technology fee in a blank amount on court filings made under section 357.021, subdivision 2, clauses (1) to (13). (Examples of these filings including the initial court filing fees, motion fees, issuance of a subpoena, docketing fees, and others.)

The court technology fee is deposited in a special revenue fund to be appropriated to the Supreme Court for technology purposes. The bill directs the Supreme Court to submit, every two years, a report to the legislature that provides an accounting of the funds.
