Overview

This bill defines the scope of the requirement that funeral establishments have a preparation and embalming room as applying only to those funeral establishments where human remains are presents for listed purposes.

Section

- 1 Scope. Amends section § 149A.92 by adding subdivision 11. Limits the scope of the requirement that all funeral establishments have a preparation and embalming room to only those funeral establishments where human remains are present for the purpose of preparation and embalming, private viewings, visitations, services, and holding of human remains while awaiting final disposition. Defines “private viewing” as viewing of a dead human body by persons designated in section § 149A.80, subdivision 2.
