Permits the District One Hospital District in Faribault to sell the district property at private sale without advertising for bids, notwithstanding a 1963 special law prohibiting any sale. Provides that once the sale is concluded and all outstanding debt is able to be paid, each city and town in the district must petition the hospital board for dissolution under the general law governing hospital districts. Effective the day following final enactment.

Repeals the special laws establishing and governing the hospital district. Effective upon the cities and towns in the district filing the petition for dissolution.
