Subd. 2. Renewal. Requires the registrant to complete a renewal application, submit the renewal fee, and provide any other information requested by the board.

Subd. 3. Change of address. Requires the registrant to inform the board within 30 days of a change of address.

Subd. 4. Registration renewal notice. Requires the board to send a renewal notice to the registrant at least 60 days before the registration renewal date.

Subd. 5. Renewal deadline. Provides that the renewal application and fee must be postmarked on or before the renewal deadline date, but if the postmark is illegible, then the application is considered timely if it is received by the third working day after the deadline.

Subd. 6. Inactive status and return to active status. Allows a registrant to place a registration on inactive status and sets the criteria for reactivating the registration.

Subd. 7. Registration following lapse of registration status for two years or less. Requires an individual to apply for registration renewal and pay the required fees.

Section

Subd. 8. Cancellation due to nonrenewal. Prohibits the board from renewing, restoring, or reissuing a registration that has not been renewed for two years. Requires a former registrant to apply and meet the requirements then in existence for initial registration.

Subd. 9. Cancellation of registration in good standing. Allows a registrant to request registration cancellation. Requires the individual, seeking to re-register, to complete an application for registration and to meet requirements then in existence for initial registration.

10 Board action on applications. Creates § 148.9881. Instructs the board to take action on all applications for registration and determine if an applicant meets the requirements for registration or renewal. Permits the board to investigate the information submitted by the applicant. Requires the board to provide written notification to the applicant on action taken on the application. Provides an appeal process for the applicant.

11 Grounds for disciplinary action. Creates § 148.9882.

Subd. 1. Grounds listed. Provides a list of the grounds for disciplinary action. Disciplinary actions may include registration, denial, revocation, suspension, or limitation.

Subd. 2. Evidence. Provides that judgments or proceedings under seal are admissible evidence in disciplinary proceedings without further authentication.

Subd. 3. Examination; access to medical data. Grants the board the authority to apply the provisions section 148.261, subdivision 5, of the Nurse Practice Act when the board believes a registrant is unable to practice due to mental illness, physical illness, or substance misuse.

12 Discipline; reporting. Creates § 148.9883. Requires registrants and applicants to comply with the reporting requirements and disciplinary process in the nurse practice act, sections 148.262 to 148.266.

13 Effect on municipal ordinance. Creates § 148.9884.

Subd. 1. License authority. Provides that this act preempts the licensure and regulation of registered massage and bodywork therapists by a municipality, including conducting criminal background checks.

Subd. 2. Municipal regulation. Provides that a municipality can require a massage and bodywork establishment to obtain a business license in order to transact business, enforce the provisions of the health code, and otherwise regulate the establishment. Does not limit the municipality's authority to require a criminal background check for any unregistered massage and bodywork therapist.

Subd. 3. Prosecuting authority. Allows a municipality to prosecute violations of this act, any local ordinance, or any other law by a registered or unregistered massage and bodywork therapist.

14 Fees. Establishes fees and requires the board to deposit fees in the state government special revenue account.
