Overview

This bill requires predatory offender registration for persons who receive stays of adjudication for sex offenses. The bill also requires that stays of adjudication in sex offenses be justified in writing by the court and available to the public via the internet.

Section

- 1 Registration required. Requires offenders who receive stays of adjudication for criminal sexual conduct offenses to register as predatory offenders. The sentencing court may excuse juvenile offenders from this requirement for good cause.
- 2 Limits of sentences. Requires a sentencing judge to justify in writing a stay of adjudication for felony criminal sexual conduct offenses. Directs that records of stays of adjudication in criminal sexual conduct offenses be available to the public via the internet.
