Section

- 1      Lowest cost to consumers. Amends § 151.71, by adding subd. 3. (a) Prohibits a health plan company or a pharmacy benefits manager from requiring an individual to pay, for a covered prescription medication at the point of sale, an amount greater than the allowable cost to consumers as defined in paragraph (b).
- (b) Defines “allowable cost to consumers” as the lowest of: (1) the applicable copayment; (2) the allowable claim amount; or (3) the cost of the medication if purchased without using a health plan benefit.
