Overview

This bill authorizes all peace officers to complete service of process for procedures related to harassment restraining orders; creating a short-form notification of a restraining order; and allowing corrections officers to serve restraining orders and temporary restraining orders.

Section

1 - 3 Expands the category of individuals authorized to serve process in harassment restraining order procedures exclusively from the county sheriff to all peace officers and expands the prohibition on fees for the service of process to all peace officers.

4 Short-form notification.

Para. (a). Creates a short-form notification to inform a respondent of the existence of a harassment restraining order. The short-form notification form must include the:

- respondent's name;
- respondent's date of birth, if known;
- petitioner's name;
- names of other protected parties;
- date and county in which the temporary restraining order was filed;
- court file number;
- hearing date and time, if known;
- conditions that apply to the respondent; and
- name of the judge who signed the order.

Section

Para. (b). Permits a law enforcement officer to detain a respondent for the time necessary to complete and serve a short-form notification.

Para. (c). Authorizes the use of a law enforcement officer's affidavit to prove proof of service of a short-form notification.

Para. (d). Permits service of a short-form notification at any time.

Para. (e). Requires the BCA to provide the short-form notification form to law enforcement agencies.

5 Service by others. Allows peace officers, corrections officers including probation agents, court services officers, parole officers, and employees of jail and other correctional facilities to serve temporary restraining orders and restraining orders.
