This bill expands the gift law to prohibit members and staff of the Minnesota Sports Facilities Authority (which oversees U.S. Bank Stadium) and the Minnesota Ballpark Authority (which oversees Target Field) from giving gifts to certain officials.

Officials who are subject to the gift law include those designated as “public officials” (this list includes state elected officials, state agency commissioners, county commissioners, and a variety of other miscellaneous positions in state government). Legislative staff and local officials within a metropolitan governmental unit are also subject to the gift law.
