This bill prohibits the Secretary of State from publishing certain registered addresses associated with a business entity on the secretary's website.

The restriction applies if an address registered for the business is also the home address of an individual who is the sole shareholder, member, manager, or owner of the business. Addresses subject to the website restriction remain public along with other data maintained by the Secretary of State related to the business, and must continue to be available via a request by telephone, mail, email, or fax.
