Overview

This bill authorizes the Department of Human Services and the Metropolitan Council to share certain data about individuals to whom the agencies provide special transportation services.

Section

- 1 General (Data Practices Act). Creates an exception to the provision making data on individuals collected, maintained, used, or disseminated by the welfare system private data on individuals. Allows disclosure of an individual's name, date of birth, address, and program eligibility status between the Department of Human Services and the Metropolitan Council in order to coordinate special transportation services between the agencies and to provide for reimbursements. Effective the day after enactment.
- 2 Transportation service data (Data Practices Act). Allows disclosure of an individual's name, date of birth, address, and program eligibility status between the Department of Human Services and the Metropolitan Council in order to coordinate special transportation services between the agencies and to provide for reimbursements. Effective the day after enactment.
- 3 Duties of the council (Metropolitan Council statute). Adds to the Metro Mobility service area any area added to the transit taxing district that received capital improvements financed in part by the Minnesota Urban Partnership Agreement (UPA). Effective the day after enactment.
