

Subject Law Enforcement Authority; Tribal Peace Officers

Authors Kunesh-Podein

Analyst Jeff Diebel

Date March 14, 2019

Overview

The bill provides that tribal peace departments have concurrent state law jurisdictional authority with the local sheriff within the boundaries of their reservation regardless of whether a cooperative agreement exists, provided it meets the requirements set forth in Minnesota Statutes, section 626.93, subdivision 2.