

Subject Criminal sexual conduct in the first degree

Authors Moller

Analyst Jeff Diebel

Date March 13, 2019

Overview

In response to a recent Minnesota Supreme Court decision (State v. Ortega-Rodriguez), this bill clarifies that certain first degree criminal sexual conduct convictions for “sexual contact with a person under 13 years of age” do not require proof of sexual penetration.