

Subject Criminal Sexual Conduct – Peace Officers

Authors Lesch and others

Analyst Jeff Diebel

Date March 8, 2019

Summary

Section	Description
1	Crime defined. Prohibits a peace officer from sexually penetrating a person who is restrained by the peace officer or otherwise does not reasonably feel free to leave the officer's presence. A peace officer would not be entitled to assert victim consent as a defense. The bill provides an exception for lawful searches.
2	Crime defined. Prohibits a peace officer from sexually contacting a person who is restrained by the peace officer or otherwise does not reasonably feel free to leave the officer's presence. A peace officer would not be entitled to assert victim consent as a defense. The bill provides an exception for lawful searches.