Summary

This bill creates a local correctional discipline procedures act. The bill establishes minimum standards for obtaining formal statements of local correctional officers who are named in a complaint. The bill regulates:

- the place a formal statement may be taken;
- what constitutes an actionable complaint;
- disclosure of witness statements to the accused correctional officer;
- the timing of formal statement sessions;
- maintenance of a record of proceedings;
- the presence of union representation at proceedings;
- advance notice of evidence against the accused; and
- other related matters.
