

Subject State Bee
Authors Hansen and others
Analyst Matt Gehring
Date March 11, 2019

Overview

This bill establishes the rusty patched bumble bee as the official bee of the State of Minnesota.

The rusty patched bumble bee has been designated as an endangered species under federal law. The bill includes an appropriation to the Environmental Quality Board to coordinate protection efforts for the bee.