

Subject Hennepin County library

Authors Freiberg and others

Analyst Deborah A. Dyson

Date March 11, 2019

Overview

Provides that the Hennepin County library director must be qualified by experience and education, eliminating the specific requirement that the director have a graduate school degree from a school accredited by the American Library Association.