Summary

Section	Description
1	Notices of violation [§ 326B.082, subd. 6] Allows for use of email, in addition to existing methods, for transmitting notice of a violation under the construction codes and licensing statutes.
2	Hearings related to administrative orders [§ 326B.082, subd. 8] Allows for use of email, in addition to existing methods, for transmitting notice hearing on an administrative order under the construction codes and licensing statutes.
3	Issuance of licensing orders; hearings related to licensing orders [§ 326B.082, subd. 12] Allows for use of email, in addition to existing methods, for issuing administrative orders under the construction codes and licensing statutes.
4	Public building [§ 326B.103, subd. 11] Stylistic clarification of the definition of “public building” relating to building projects for school districts and charter schools.
5	License number to be displayed [§ 326B.46, subd. 7] Adds requirement for plumbers to display their name and license number on their vehicle. The same is currently required of electricians.
6	Renewal; use period for license [§ 326B.475, subd. 4] Strikes outdated language related to “restricted” plumbers.
7	Grounds for sanctions [§ 326B.84] Clarifies that sanctions under the construction codes and licensing statutes can be applied to unlicensed individuals.
8	Repealer Repeals outlier section related to plumber advertising from consumer protection chapter. The result is plumbers are treated the same as other licensed individuals under the construction codes and licensing statutes.
