

Subject Assault by strangulation
Authors Pinto and Moller
Analyst Ben Johnson (651-296-8957)
Date February 28, 2020

Overview

Under current law, it is a felony to commit the crime of domestic assault by strangulation. This bill establishes a new offense of assault by strangulation that would apply regardless of the relationship between the offender and the victim and repeals the offense of domestic assault by strangulation.

Summary

Section	Description
1	Denial of service. Makes a conforming change.
2	Definition. Makes a conforming change.
3	Permanent disqualification. Makes a conforming change.
4	Applicable crimes. Makes a conforming change.
5	Qualified domestic violence-related offense. Makes a conforming change.
6	Assault by strangulation. Creates a new felony offense for intentionally impeding normal breathing or circulation of the blood by applying pressure on the throat or neck or by blocking the nose or mouth of another person.
7	Domestic assaults; firearms. Makes a conforming change.

Section	Description
8	Definition. Makes a conforming change.
9	Crime of violence. Makes a conforming change.
10	Application. Makes a conforming change.
11	Repealer. Repeals the existing offense of domestic assault by strangulation.

MN HOUSE RESEARCH

Minnesota House Research Department provides nonpartisan legislative, legal, and information services to the Minnesota House of Representatives. This document can be made available in alternative formats.

www.house.mn/hrd | 651-296-6753 | 600 State Office Building | St. Paul, MN 55155