

Subject Use of credit information in employment

Authors Noor and others

Analyst Marta James

Date March 3, 2020

Summary

This bill prohibits an employer or prospective employer from requesting or using credit information in hiring, firing, or deciding employment terms and conditions for an employee or job applicant. The bill provides exceptions for certain types of positions. The bill provides for enforcement through a private cause of action.