

Subject Conditional approval limited to schools physically present in Minnesota

Authors Pryor

Analyst Sean Williams

Date March 2, 2020

Summary

Under current law, the Office of Higher Education has the authority to grant a degree-granting school a one-year conditional approval while the school applies for accreditation. The bill limits that authority to schools physically located in Minnesota.