

Subject Postsecondary institutions required to disclose costs, completion rates, and success in placement

Authors Demuth and Nornes

Analyst Sean Williams

Date March 9, 2020

Summary

The bill requires postsecondary institutions to publish the following information and include it in promotional materials for prospective students:

- Tuition and fees related to undergraduate majors and programs
- An estimated timeline for completing undergraduate majors and programs
- Data on placement rates for undergraduate majors and programs