Overview

This bill modifies provisions relating to licensure and background checks for individuals and applicants affiliated with licensed family child foster care. The bill allows for licensure denial and licensing action for non-disqualifying background study information that reflects on an applicant's ability to safely care for children, and creates new disqualification criteria for individuals affiliated with family child foster care license applicants.

Summary

Section	Description
1	Denial of application. Amends § 245A.05. Specifies that the commissioner of human services may deny an applicant for family child foster care if the applicant has non-disqualifying background study information that reflects on the applicant's ability to safely care for foster children. Makes this section effective March 1, 2020.
2	Sanctions; appeals; license. Amends § 245A.07, subd. 1.
