

- Subject Eminent domain procedures
- Authors Masin and others
- Analyst Deborah A. Dyson
 - Date March 3, 2020

Summary

Requires that a person appointed by a court to serve on the panel that decides the value of the property in an eminent domain process, reside in Minnesota.

Strikes language relating to the timing of a court's inquiry, or release of the results of the inquiry, into qualifications of a person appointed by the court to serve on the panel that decides the value of the property in an eminent domain process.

Minnesota House Research Department provides nonpartisan legislative, legal, and information services to the Minnesota House of Representatives. This document can be made available in alternative formats.