

Subject Pharmacist intramuscular and subcutaneous drug administration

Authors Mann and others

Analyst Sarah Sunderman

Date March 20, 2020

Summary

This bill expands the definition of “practice of pharmacy” to include intramuscular and subcutaneous drug administration by pharmacists, under a prescription drug order. The bill does not modify the specific conditions under which a pharmacist is permitted to administer drugs for the treatment of mental illness.