

Subject The State Building Code

Authors Becker-Finn and others

Analyst Anna Scholin

Date February 20, 2020

Summary

Modifies the State Building Code to require installing baby diaper changing stations in buildings with restrooms that are accessible to the public. Requires, on each floor where there is a public restroom, the installation of at least one changing station, either in a unisex restroom or in both a men's restroom and a women's restroom. This change would apply only to new or substantially remodeled construction.