

Subject Provision of emergency care to police dogs by emergency medical personnel

Authors Mekeland and others

Analyst Elisabeth Klarqvist

Date March 10, 2021

Overview

This bill allows emergency medical personnel to provide emergency medical care to police dogs wounded in the line of duty without being licensed by the Board of Veterinary Medicine.

Summary

Section	Description
---------	-------------

- |   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|---|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 | Authorized activities. Amends § 156.12, subd. 2. Amends a subdivision authorizing individuals to provide certain care or assistance to animals without being licensed by the Board of Veterinary Medicine, to allow emergency medical personnel certified by the Emergency Medical Services Regulatory Board to provide emergency medical care to a police dog wounded in the line of duty, without being licensed by the Board of Veterinary Medicine. |
|---|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|