

Subject Tobacco in schools
Authors Richardson and others
Analyst Cristina Parra
Date February 26, 2021

Summary

This bill creates an exception to the prohibition on tobacco products in public schools. It allows an American Indian student to carry a medicine pouch containing loose tobacco intended to be used in a traditional spiritual or cultural practice. Current law allows an adult to light tobacco in school as part of a traditional Indian spiritual or cultural ceremony.