

Subject Peace officer strength and agility examinations

Authors Pinto

Analyst Jeff Diebel

Date March 7, 2022

Summary

This bill requires law enforcement agencies to use only scientifically content-validated, job related physical strength and agility screening exams for peace officer applicants. The bill authorizes agencies to seek reimbursement from the state for administering screening exams that comply with this section and appropriates $250,000 for this purpose.