Overview

This bill makes several changes to laws related to sex trafficking and being the patron of a prostitute. The bill increases maximum penalties and fines, eliminates the existing misdemeanor offense of being the patron of a prostitute, makes all first offenses for being the patron of a prostitute a gross misdemeanor, and creates a new felony offense for being a repeat patron of a prostitute.

Summary

Section	Description
1	Definitions. Adds a violation of section 609.322 (sex trafficking in the first degree) to the definition of “violent crime” in the section of law that permits increased sentences for certain dangerous and repeat felony offenders.
2	Certain violations excepted. Removes a reference to a misdemeanor violation which is repealed in this bill.
3	Solicitation, inducement, and promotion of prostitution; sex trafficking in the first degree. Increases the maximum sentence of imprisonment for a person who commits sex trafficking in the first degree from 20 years to 25 years. Increases the maximum sentence of imprisonment for a person who commits sex trafficking in the first degree when any of four aggravating factors are present from 25 years to 30 years.
4	Solicitation, inducement, and promotion of prostitution; sex trafficking in the second degree. Increases the maximum sentence of imprisonment for a person who commits sex trafficking in the second degree from 15 years to 20 years.

Section	Description
