Overview

This bill restores the civil right to vote to individuals who have been convicted of a felony upon their completion of any incarceration imposed and executed for the conviction. Under current law, voting rights are not restored until an individual's sentence is fully discharged (including any period of probation, parole, or other supervised release). The bill also requires designated officials to provide a written notice and a voter registration application to individuals upon their release from incarceration.

The process of rights restoration proposed in this bill is consistent with the practices in at least 21 other states. At least 16 states follow the process that exists in current Minnesota law. Some states never revoke an individual's right to vote due to a felony conviction, and others revoke an individual's voting rights more-or-less indefinitely, subject to further action, such as a governor's pardon.

5	Polling place roster; voter signature certificate; voter receipt. Requires updates to the certification signed by voters in a polling place attesting to their eligibility to vote, to reflect the change in the restoration of the civil right to vote provided by this bill.
6	Notice of restoration of right to vote. Requires the chief executive officer of each state and local correctional facility to designate one official within the facility to provide a notice of restoration of rights and a voter registration application to individuals whose rights are restored following a release from incarceration.  Subd. 1. Correctional facilities; designation of official. Requires designation of the official, and that the official maintain a sufficient supply of voter registration applications and informational materials.  Subd. 2. Notice requirement. Establishes standards for when a notice of restored voting rights must be provided.  Subd. 3. Form of notice. Sets the full text of the notice that must be provided when an individual is restored to voting rights following release from incarceration.  Subd. 4. Failure to provide notice. Provides that the failure of a corrections official to provide the notice required by this section does not prevent the restoration of voting rights.
7	Restoration. Eliminates a reference to the right to vote in an existing section of law governing the restoration of civil rights, including the right to vote and hold office, following discharge after conviction of a crime. Restoration of the right to vote would be governed by the new law established earlier in this bill.
