

Subject Government data practices: licensing data

Authors Jordan

Analyst Nathan Hopkins

Date January 18, 2023

Summary

Classifies as private/nonpublic tax returns or bank account statements submitted to a political subdivision as part of an application for a license. Also imposes a destruction requirement for that data. The act would be effective the day following enactment and its destruction requirement would apply retroactively to previously collected data addressed in the bill.