

Subject Name Change After Dissolution of Marriage

Authors Hansen, J. and Others

Analyst Mary Davis

Date January 9, 2023

Summary

This bill allows a person to change their name after a dissolution of marriage without paying a filing fee and without a national criminal history check so long as the person provides a certified copy of marriage dissolution court order and a certified copy of the person's birth certificate. The court must grant the name change so long as the purpose is not to defraud and the name change isn't prohibited by the statute governing name changes for an individual who has a felony criminal conviction.