

Subject Emergency Medical Training

Authors Huot and Others

Analyst Cristina Parra

Date January 27, 2023

Summary

This bill appropriates money for grants to school districts, charter schools, or cooperatives to offer high school students emergency medical services courses that prepare students to take the emergency medical technician certification test. Grant funds may be used to pay for teacher salaries, transportation, equipment costs, emergency medical technician certification test fees, and student background checks.