Section	Description
5	Reproductive health care services. Adds subd. 6 to § 245C.15. Amends a section listing grounds on which a person may be disqualified from certain positions after a background study, to provide that the commissioner of human services may not disqualify an individual subject to a background study for accessing or providing reproductive health care services. This section is effective the day following final enactment.
6	Application of law; enforcement of judgments; reproductive health. Adds § 548.252. Prohibits a court in Minnesota from applying the law from another state in a civil action, or enforcing a judgment or satisfying a judgment from another state, if the law from the other state is one that allows a person to be sued for seeking to terminate a pregnancy, terminating a pregnancy, or assisting in the termination of a pregnancy. This section also prevents the enforcement of a subpoena issued in Minnesota or another state, if the subpoena is related to a criminal or civil case that restricts a person’s ability to terminate a pregnancy. This section has an exception, and does not apply to causes of action, or the enforcement of judgments or subpoenas, if the same cause of action, or civil or criminal action, could be maintained in Minnesota. This section is effective the day following final enactment.
7	Civil liability for reproductive health penalties. Adds § 604.415. Allows a person to sue someone who brought a case against them in another state for using, or assisting someone in using, reproductive health care services. Allows a person to bring an action in this state for the costs, damages, and attorney fees associated with defending the case. This section is effective the day following final enactment.
8	Definitions. Amends § 629.01. States that the terms “committing an act in this state” and “acts committed in this state” include any actions taken while the person is physically present in Minnesota.
9	Duties of governor in extradition matters. Amends § 629.02. Provides that the Uniform Criminal Extradition Act does not authorize the detention and extradition of a person who commits an act or receives a service in Minnesota involving reproductive health care. This section is effective the day following final enactment.

Section	Description
10	Extradition by agreement. Amends § 629.05. Establishes that, where the governor has discretion to extradite a person who left a demanding state involuntarily, the governor may not extradite a person for acts committed in Minnesota involving reproductive health care. This section is effective the day following final enactment.
11	Extradition of persons committing crime. Amends § 629.06. Provides that, where the governor has discretion to extradite a person charged in another state for acts committed in Minnesota or a third state, the governor may not extradite a person for acts involving reproductive health care. This section is effective the day following final enactment.
12	Who may be apprehended. Amends § 629.13. Prohibits a judge in Minnesota from issuing a warrant for the arrest of a person charged in another state for a crime arising from acts committed in Minnesota involving reproductive health care. This section is effective the day following final enactment.
13	Arrest without warrant. Amends § 629.14. Prohibits a peace officer or other person from arresting a person charged in another state for a crime arising from acts committed in Minnesota involving reproductive health care. This section is effective the day following final enactment.
