

Subject Indian Tribe-owned property tax exemption extended

Authors Becker-Finn

Analyst Jared Swanson

Date February 6, 2023

Summary

Extends a property tax exemption for a property in Minneapolis owned by the Minnesota Chippewa Tribe. The exemption was originally established in 2013 and is set to expire with property taxes payable in 2024. The bill would extend the exemption for an additional ten years. The bill would also exempt the property from the requirement to file an exemption application every three years.