This bill, as amended by H0655A1, directs the commissioner of children, youth, and families to modify the rules governing licensed capacity for family child care providers.

Summary

Section	Description
---------	-------------

1	Direction to commissioner of children, youth, and families: amending capacity limits.
---	--

Paragraph (a) directs the commissioner of children, youth, and families to amend the rules governing licensed family child care providers to allow up to four of the provider's preschool or school-age children to be excluded when determining the provider's licensed capacity.

Paragraph (b) allows the commissioner to use an abbreviated rulemaking process when amending the rules under paragraph (a).
